AVEONICS

In March 2006, four friends from Sydney collaborated to form The Aveonics. Such is their energy and dynamics that it's taken no time at all to establish themselves on the live scene as a band not to be missed! Support is growing with an ever-growing fan base that remains loyal to the cause, with evident rock prowess and genuine pop sensibility. The Aveonics are a testament to the fact that bands are back, and song writing is alive and well. They have been featured on iTunes globally and are now receiving air play nationally in Australia, USA and Canada. Check them out...

Step six :

The 'Checkout' area will let you choose your music and download the MP3s as a zip.file to your computer:

HERE IS HOW IT WORKS:

1. Once you start a download you have 24 hours to download the Item you click on. This should give you enough time to restart the download if it fails.
2. You can check off multiple tracks and then click "Download Selected MP3s as a Zip File" to download more than one file at a time. By default this also organizes your selection into artist and album folders.
